Course Description:

The course examines supply chain management (SCM) and discusses its importance and benefits to the overall strategy and competitiveness of firms of all sizes. Companies are evolving in an increasingly demanding and competitive global market. The course explores all of the key elements that comprise SCM.

Course Objectives:

This course covers the theoretical basis as well as problem solving techniques related to supply chain management problems. At the end of the course students should have the ability to understand the supply chain and design supply chain networks based on the learned knowledge through the course. Students perform serious games and role playing activities as SC stakeholders and they will be able to measure performance of the supply chain by using key performance indicators (KPIs).
