

A brief Course Description

Course Name:field experience(4) learning difficulties field
Course Code	SPE 368 T
College	Collage of Education
Department/ Program	Special Education \BA
Year / Level:	3rd year \ 6th level
Credit Hours	1
Contact Hours	Lecture:1	Lab/Tutorial	Training: 5
Language
Track (Select)	<input type="checkbox"/> University Requirement <input type="checkbox"/> College Requirement <input type="checkbox"/> Department Requirement <input type="checkbox"/> Elective Course
Pre-requisites Course:	SPE 367 T
Co-Requests:
Course Objectives:	SPE 368 T is the fourth of the five series Field observations, and is presented within a package of compulsory general courses in Bachelor's program in the Department of Special Education which is taught in the year The third is at the sixth level, and the number of hours covered is one hour One certified (7-week theory) course provides an initial opportunity For observation in schools or centers that serve students with needs Course, preparing the female student trainee to be able to develop Observation skills, and the opportunity to observe children with disabilities Special in the educational environment (schools / centers) Where the trainee

A brief Course Description

student focuses At this point to conduct an organized observation that focuses on how Apply formal and informal assessment methods and tools for its levels
The different (tribal, formative, and post) levels and the importance of each level
Rating in: first. Determine the strengths and needs of children and the differences Individual among them and taking into account their different educational needs.
Second, the role of evaluation In planning for the introduction of special education programs, third is the importance of evaluation in monitoring progress in student performance during and after the introduction of these programs, depending on the track Specialist for female trainee.