

Why should you choose this course from the English Language Institute?

- In comparison to other options in the region, it provides excellent value for the cost.
- We have 220 highly qualified and very experienced teachers
- The English Language Institute is located at Princess Nourah University which is in a safe location that is easy to access on the Airport Road.
- A vast selection of course books and additional resources are available to trainees to aid them in their lesson planning.