

LIFELONG LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

PNU offers a set of public lectures and other local events throughout the year, within and outside its premises and provides access to educational resources for its students and for people outside its campuses. PNU is also actively involved in hosting community educational service activities such as education programs, vocational trainings, job fairs and other ceremonies.

Educational resources

Open events to the general public: public lectures, community education...

Open events to the general public: executive education programmes an...

Educational outreach activities beyond campus

Policy to ensures the access to all, regardless of ethnicity, religion, disabi...
