

WOMEN'S MENTORING SCHEMES

PNU has launched a Higher Diploma program in Physical Education for Girls with the aim to prepare qualified cadres to find new job opportunities in the field of sports. It also established a new department, the Department of Sports Affairs, in order to utilize its sports facilities and create a sporting environment where female students are provided with the necessary knowledge and training in various sports disciplines and be able to participate in regional and international sporting events. It also aims at raising the level of community awareness about the importance of Saudi women's practice of sports and adopting a healthy lifestyle. Attached is the Department of Sports Affairs report which demonstrates the number of students who participated in different sporting competitions and community sporting events.
