

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Assessments 2: Neuropsychological Assessments
Course Code	CPY 321
College	Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences department/ Clinical Psychology
Year / Level:	3th year, 6th level
Credit Hours	4 (2,1,1)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 2	Training: 4
Language	English
Track	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	NA
Co-Requests:	None
Course Objectives:	This course aims to introduce methods used to examine the cognitive consequences of brain disease, damage and psychiatric disorders. By the end of the courses: Students will understand how to apply theory and research to neuropsychological assessment of patients with different disorders and neurological conditions. Students will gain knowledge on different functional and cognitive impairment patterns typically associated with specific disorders and identify the most appropriate tests or assessment batteries according to the testing conditions and client situational factors. Students will develop skills in how to administer, score and interpret results from a range of assessments tools and develop effective report-writing skills to communicate meaningful and significant results from assessment. Students will be able to recognise and discuss the significance of test results for a client's physical or cognitive rehabilitation plan.

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Psychological Therapies 1
Course Code	CPY 322
College	Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences department/ Clinical Psychology
Year / Level:	3rd year, 6th level
Credit Hours	4(2.1 .1)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 2	Training: 4
Language	English
Track	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	NA
Co-Requests:	NA
Course Objectives:	Throughout this course we will study issues and evidence regarding the role of psychological factors in health and illness from theoretical, scientific, applied, and personal avenues of inquiry. The course offers introduction approaches to that psychotherapy fall into five broad categories, according to APA: Psychoanalysis and psychodynamic therapies; Behavior therapy; Cognitive therapy; Humanistic therapy; Integrative or holistic therapy. The course offers initial approach to cognitive and behavior psychotherapies; issues of management related to chronic and terminal illness; psychological techniques in treatment and rehabilitation of physical illness; Cognitive-behavioral approaches to health-behavior change; support for the dying and bereaved; pain relief and management; coping techniques, distraction, and guided imagery. In the practical part of this course, students will familiarize themselves with the different communications in medical settings, Practitioner-patient relationship/interaction, as well as School of Psychotherapy: (Psychotherapeutic techniques in relation to particular problem e.g., pain, headache, stress).

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Mood disorders & Psychosis
Course Code	CPY 323
College	Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences department/ Clinical Psychology
Year / Level:	3rd year, 6th level
Credit Hours	4(2.1 .1)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 2	Training: 4
Language	English
Track	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	NA
Co-Requests:	NA
Course Objectives:	This course covers the topics of Mood Disorders and psychosis within psychopathology. The specific aims of this course are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To have knowledge of the etiology of these disorders.• To have knowledge of the biological and psychological treatment of these disorders.• To be able to critically read and summarize scientific articles on these disorders.• To relate the above to pathology in adults.

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Personality disorders
Course Code	CPY324
College	Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences department/ Clinical Psychology
Year / Level:	3rd year, 5th level
Credit Hours	4(2.1.1)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 2	Training: 4
Language	English
Track	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	Personality theories (CPY 213)
Co-Requests:	None
Course Objectives:	This course provides substantial knowledge of the symptoms, prevalence, etiology, diagnostics and treatment of Paranoid Personality Disorder, Schizoid Personality Disorder, Schizotypal Personality Disorder, Antisocial Personality Disorder, Borderline Personality Disorder, Histrionic Personality Disorder, Narcissistic Personality Disorder, Avoidant Personality Disorder, Dependent Personality Disorder, and Obsessive Compulsive Personality Disorder. During the practical part of this course, students will learn how to conduct a professional feedback consultation, based on the YSQ test, which they administer. They will also learn more about selection of assessment instruments and how to write a treatment plan. In addition of learning how to conduct a differential diagnosis.		