

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Professional and ethical issues
Course Code	CPY 411
College	College of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences Department/ Clinical Psychology Program
Year / Level:	7th Level /4th Year
Credit Hours	٢ (2, 0, 0)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 0	Training: 0
Language	English
Track (Select)	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	NA
Co-Requests:	NA
Course Objectives:	This course looks at professional and ethical issues related to Clinical Psychology. The course offers an introduction and applicability of General Principles and Ethical Standards provided by APA. It will cover resolving ethical issues, competence, human relations as well as issue related with privacy and confidentiality of clients data, advertising and other public statements, record keeping and fees, education and training, ethical conduct while research and publication, assessment. The cultural impact on the slandered ethics to be customized according to Muslim religion and Saudi culture.

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Psycho-pharmacology
Course Code	CPY 412
College	College of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences Department/ Clinical Psychology Program
Year / Level:	7 th Level /4 th Year
Credit Hours	3 (2, 0, 1)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 0	Training: 4
Language	English
Track (Select)	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	Biological Psychopathology (CPY 313)
Co-Requests:	NA
Course Objectives:	This course covers the most widely used principles of psychopharmacology, categorization of drugs and sites and mechanisms of drug actions. Student will receive broad background information on drug addiction, different prescribed drugs-in psychological illnesses, effects and side effects of drugs, endocrine system, and role of neurotransmitters and neuromodulators. They will be familiarize with different Neurological Disorders (Organic Brain Syndrome; Affective Disorders, Epilepsy), Neurological Explanation of Schizophrenia; Anxiety Disorders; Sleep Disorders, Degenerative Disorders. The interference between the function of the medication with their treatment plan.

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Psychological therapies 2: Cognitive and behavioural therapies
Course Code	CPY 413
College	College of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences Department/ Clinical Psychology Program
Year / Level:	7 th Level/4 th year
Credit Hours	4(2,1,1)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 2	Training: 4
Language	English
Track	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	Cognitive theories: Mind and Behavior (CPY 224)
Co-Requests:	NA
Course Objectives:	This course covers the most widely used and scientifically validated psychological treatment method, cognitive and behavioral therapy. This method of treatment is discussed in relation to different disorders such as panic disorders, social phobia, obsessive- compulsive disorders, (post-traumatic) stress disorders, as well as global developmental delay and autism .During the course, students practice clinical skills that they will need to treat patients with these disorders. The foundation and the history of behavioral therapy in the field of Applied Behavior Analysis, the various types of behavior therapy and its implementation across different clinical populations will be reviewed. It will also cover the Behavioral Model, Behavior Assessment, Exposure Therapy, Modeling Therapy, Contemporary Behavior Therapy and the applications of Behavior Therapy.

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Case Conceptualization
Course Code	CPY 414
College	College of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences Department/ Clinical Psychology Program
Year / Level:	7th Level /4th Year
Credit Hours	3 (2, 0, 1)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 2	Lab/Tutorial: 0	Training: 4
Language	English
Track (Select)	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	Clinical Psychology and Statistics 1 (CPY 214)
Co-Requests:	NA
Course Objectives:	This course covers the most widely used practices of case conceptualization and case formulation. Students first receive broad background information on the practice of Psychological assessment and practice of the diagnostic skills required to diagnose patients. manner.

A brief Course Description

Course Name	Research Methodology in Clinical Psychology
Course Code	CPY 415
College	Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
Department/ Program	Health Sciences department/ Clinical Psychology
Year / Level:	Level 7th /Year 4th
Credit Hours	3 (1, 2, 0)
Contact Hours	Lecture: 1	Lab/Tutorial: 4	Training: 0
Language	English
Track	Department Requirement
Pre-requisites Course:	Clinical Psychology and Statistics 2 (CPY 223)
Co-Requests:	None
Course Objectives:	This course covers the entire preparation process for performing and reporting on scientific research. Students will choose their own research topic and come up with their own research. Then composing a proposal for this research, guided by a Tutor. The research itself will not be performed; this is reserved for the course CPY 425 Research Project		